ON THE ROAD To The Title

Ryde City 2
Eastern Suburbs 2

Mark Fowler was at Wentworth Park.

When the final score was read out at Wentworth Park, Ryde's ground announcer said, "Ryde City 2 and Eastern Suburbs 2 - and we got out of jail." How right he was!

For the third week in a row Eastern Suburbs conceeded a late goal, but none can have been as cruel as this. With 90 minutes up Ryde's captain, the tireless Craig Sharpley, made his way into the penalty area and twisting and turning, somehow managed to get a cross over. The ball was met perfectly by substitute Scott Ollerenshaw to net his and Ryde's second of the game, and give them a share of the points they barely deserved.

Ollerenshaw's brace after coming off the bench at half time was a good riposte to coach Les Declis, as Ollerenshaw said he felt fit enough to play a full game. It is the sort of riposte Decelis won't mind.

For Eastern Suburbs coach John Calleja was naturally disappointed after the final whistle, and felt his team had helped contribute to their own downfall by playing long balls at the end of the game.

The first half was all Eastern Suburbs, and they led 2-0 at the break courtesy of two well-taken goals by Peter Pullicino. His first came in only the sixth minute, and involved a lovely one-two. He was surprisingly allowed to run down the left-hand side of the pitch, and ended up in the penalty area with the keeper to beat and defenders still backing away. His finish was still class though, as he slid the ball past the onrushing Les Bihari in Ryde's net.

It was all Eastern Suburbs at this stage, and they nearly doubled their lead after 28 minutes. Pullicino this time ran down the right flank and along the by-line. His cross was met by Mark Beldham, who deflected it goalwards. It looked a goal for sure, however a touch by Bihari saw the ball spin wide.

Ryde had a chance to level when a through ball found them clear on goal after 39 minutes, but Eastern Suburbs goalkeeper Con Anastasiadis was quick off his line to snatch the ball off the feet of the onrushing attacker.

Pullicino scored his and Eastern Suburbs second after 43 minutes. If his first goal was good, then this was a belter. Finding himself once again with space on the left hand side of the pitch, Pullicino smacked the ball past a helpless Bihari to make it 2-0.

Ryde coach Decelis brought on Scott Ollerenshaw at half time, a move that was later going to prove discisive, and Jason Lal just after the break.

Those expecting the Gunners to try blitzing their opposition after the break though were surprised, as they still looked second best behind Easts.

Ollerenshaw gave the Wanderers notice after 69 minutes, heading a ball skillfully from behind him that clipped the top of the bar. It was notice Eastern Suburbs failed to heed.

With 18 minutes to go a long corner from the left hand side beat everyone, and the ball back in from the right was whipped in for Ollerenshaw to knock in from close range. The game changed from that moment. Ryde suddenly looked the stronger team and Eastern Suburbs had Patrick Darvill booked for a late challenge.

Sharpley and Ollerenshaw then conjured up their late equaliser, to give both teams their first points of the season.

Ryde coach Decelis revealed after that his plan had been to try and hit Eastern Suburbs late in the game, although preferably without giving them the two goal start! He picked out Ollerenshaw for his goals and made reference to the age of his team - both Andrew Nicol and Ross Kethel still being in their teens.

Eastern Suburbs coach John Calleja said he wouldn't be ranting and raving at his players, but had told them to go away and think about the game and they would all get together at training and discuss the situation.

Bankstown City Lions 3 Fairfield Bulls 1

Bankstown City Lions bounced back from their 5-1 mauling at the hands of Canterbury-Marrickville to defeat Fairfield Bulls 3-1.

After his team's big defeat last week coach Sakib Lovic had his players in for training for four nights - and a Sunday morning session before the match.

His players weren't too tired to play though, as they deservedly secured all three points and also scored three good goals.

Fairfield took the lead in bizarre circumstances in the 37th minute. A Martin Driene cross-shot looped over the head of Bankstown keeper Leo Premutico and into the net, leaving a both players and officials unsure as to whether it was intended!

Bankstown bounced back in the second half however, and played strongly. A longe range effort from Michael Hawrysiuk brought the Lions back on level terms, then Robert Issa, minutes after coming off the substitutes bench, made it 2-1.

A goal in the last minute from Round One hero Zoki Adioski clinched the Lions victory, and gave them six points from their opening three games.

Fairfield will learn a lot from this defeat though, and a win, draw and loss in their first season in Super league represents a solid start.

Bankstown City Lions: Premutico, T Josevski, R Luksic, D Luksic, Grozanovski (Abi-Arrage), Trposki (Issa), Hawrysuik, Todoroski, Adioski, Lozevski (Bentvelzen), Codmani

Fairfield Bulls: Pupovac, Driene (Giometti 82'), Mandic (Suzor 52'), Zabetakis, Larocca, Falzon, Hoenselaars (Iocca 76'), Borg, Bourke, Treharn, Vrankovic

Yellow cards: Bankstown City Lions: Josevski 5', Adioski 17', Bentvelzen 89' Fairfield Bulls: Bourke 21', Vrankovic 25'.

Canterbury-Marrickville 2 Central Coast 2

Greg Stock was at Henson Park

In what can only be described as a scrappy stop start affair a determined Central Coast outfit held out for a well deserved point from a valiant Canterbury-Marrickville at Henson Park. Central Coast lost goalkeeper Steve Angelov to flu before the game and replaced him with the veteran Gary Meier.

In the windy conditions at Henson Park it was Meier's experience that helped his defenders organise against the Berries forwards of Nikas and Bozevski.

The Coasties defence held firm in a frantic final few minutes as the Berries attempted to take all three points in a nail-biting finish.

Both sides started slowly being content to just feel each other out until the 17th minute. The Berries midefielder Matthew Percy made a lightning run on the left and crossed to the unmarked Nick Bosevski at the far post but he nodded the ball wide to the relief of Meier. Seven minutes later the home side went one up. Talcevski made a brilliant run through the Coasties midfield before delivering to Jim Nikas in the Coasties box. Nikas had the presence of mind to turn his defender the wrong way and shoot across Meier to neatly rest the ball in the bottom right hand corner.

Not to be outdone the Coasties were back in business four minutes later.

Peter Preston found some space on the right and received an excellent ball to run onto from his defence. Pushing forward he made his way to the edge of the area before delivering a fantastic drive that left the diving Berries keeper Steve Tolios clutching at thin air. The ball was in the back of the net and Central Coast were making a good game of it.

In the second half both sides again started slowly until the 54th minute when Simon Fedele had a good strike from distance saved by Meier. Four minutes later Nick Bozevski seemed certain to score after the striker had run down the right flank and successfully dribbled around Meier. Unfortunately for the Berries the Coasties defence returned in numbers forcing Bozevski back across the pitch where his shot fell harmlessly into the arms of the recovering Meier.

The deadlock was broken four minutes later when a brilliant piece of Coasties teamwork had the crowd on their feet. Mark Drysdale on one of his rare excursions forward found Preston on the right side with a long ball. A well directed deep cross then found the flying Nathan Byrn timing his run to perfection at the far post. His well placed header was unstoppable and it was 2-1.

Canterbury started to push forward in numbers and Jim Nikas became his sides hero in the 75th minute. A neatly timed cross from Ilic found him at the back post and he was able to put the ball past the diving Meier to even the scores.

The Coasties defence came under some intense pressure in the final frantic few minutes as the Berries sought a late winner. Jim Nikas had a shot inside the penalty area deflected by a defender but the Berries desperate cries for handball were turned down by the referee. The Coasties were not done with either but a long range effort in stoppage time from the dashing blonde substitute Ryan McKendrik sailed just over the bar.

In what must be a little disappointing for the Canterbury fans the Berries have now played two score draws at home in the first three rounds. For Canterbury Fedele and Talcevski worked well in midfield. Defender Jose Mendes was good at the back while Kategiannis made a strong impact off the bench and must be pushing for a spot in the starting side. For the second time in as many weeks the Coasties defence of Maltby, Drysdale and Steele made the game tough for the opposing forwards. Peter Preston in midfield was also superb running out the full ninety minutes for the first time this season which must be pleasing to coach Allan Bourke.

After scoring seven goals in the past two games the Fairfield Bulls defence will have to be on their best behaviour when they host the Berries this week. While for the Coasties their fourth away game in a row sees them at Gabbie Stadium against last years premiers in what shapes up as a very good match.

Leichhard Tigers 2 Macarthur Rams 3

Paul Goodwin was at Lambert Park

After a keenly contested opening half hour in which Macarthur withstood some strong pressure from then home side, this game swung the way of the visiting Rams whose more direct and incisive style paid them dividends.

Things looked ominous earlier, however, as ex Ram Chris Lansdowne got into good scoring positions three times and with any luck could have had a couple of goals.

He found the side netting in the 18th, then chipped the advancing Rams' keeper John Crawley only to see the ball skim the bar in the 19th and had another drive cleared off the Macarthur line by the reliable Ben Willard.

Hassan Kdouh also tested Crawley with a clever lob that the agile goalie clung onto tenaciously underneath his crossbar in the 30th, having already fired in a good shot that struck a defender.

Macarthur began to move forward with more confidence from this point and burly defender Danny Cerjak let fly with a fierce shot that rattled past the post from 30 yards out to wake up the home side's supporters.

The Rams pressed hard towards the end of the half and when they won a corner in the 42nd it produced the opening goal of the game. The ball was swung over from the left by Kain Rastall and after the first shot from Eric Williams was blocked on the line up popped defender Richard Lloyd to head home from close range.

The second half saw Macarthur continue to prosper, with a defensive lapse allowing Trevor Whiddett to score the second for his side in the 54th.

A harmless looking ball played in by Rastall was not dealt with by three patrolling defenders and the ball fell nicely for Whiddett who finished coolly with a left footed drive into the top left corner of Frank Mikuletic's goal.

The crowd was amused to find that as soon as the goal was scored the sprinklers in one corner suddenly activated, perhaps to dampen the ardour of the highly charged Rams!

Once the taps were turned off the Tigers began to claw their way back into the game, however briefly, and substitute Mite Talcevski certainly sparked them after coming on for the injured Sarkis Boudaher. He forced a top save out of Crawley in the 61st and with his clever ballwork had the Macarthur defence scrambling to clear their lines.

After a series of corners had been won by Leichhardt a Tom Bazdaric header in the last of these was pushed onto the bar by Crawley and was only cleared as far as Talcevski who executed a smart turn and slammed the ball into the roof of the net to make it 2-1 after 63 minutes.

Macarthur stirred themselves again and when David Reid found Whiddett free on the left, the latter's cross intended for, but narrowly missed by Reid, reached Adrian Macerola out on the right byline and who had time to steady and blast the ball into the roof of the net from a tight angle.

This third goal four minutes after Leichhardt's goal, could have put paid to the Tigers but they fought on strongly.

David James had a cracking shot brilliantly saved by Crawley after James had won the ball from a defender close to goal in the 80th.

James also skimmed the bar with a shot in the 88th after the busy Crawley had made hard work of a looping cross.

Leichhardt pulled back a goal in the last seconds, following a free kick taken by Fabio Macolino, which was cleared back to the left side of goal and where the lurking Lansdowne rifled in his shot from close range.

It was a hard earned win by Macarthur and Leichhardt coach Arno Bertogna was the first to admit after the game that the visitors had done the work impressively. He forecast that some more of his Under 21 players would soon receive a call up and is still on the look out for new players to bolster his squad.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4 Parramatta Eagles 1

Paul Goodwin was at the Serbian Centre

Right from the kick off of this important Super League game at the steamy Serbian Centre on Saturday night it was clear that hosts Bonnyrigg meant business.

Coach John Turner advised before the game that his team were ready to turn things around after a disappointing start and though still only 80 per cent to his total satisfaction he felt they could do the job against Parramatta Eagles.

This they did in no uncertain terms, with a few fresh faces in the line up to vary their approach. Eighteen year old understudy keeper Sasa Bozic came in for Mladen Kos and Borislav Dragas, one of Turner's bright young prospects, returned to the heart of the defence. The side was depleted, however, due to Danny Poljak sustaining a broken ankle in a Tuesday training session, but Roman Nikolic was able to make a return via the bench after a lay off.

The home side was a goal up inside six minutes after a cross from the left by Javier Mancino somehow trickled through the usually safe hands of Jason Holmes at the near post and despite an awkward bounce Bonnyrigg striker Colin Luff was able to hook the ball into the top right corner after finding himself 10 yards out and with his back to goal, but with the ball sitting invitingly alongside him.

Grant Bard toiled hard for Parramatta all afternoon and was involved in most of their sorties. He was brought down by James Warburton as he sped towards goal in the 11th minute, but as he was still 40 yards from goal referee Matthew Breeze only produced the yellow card.

Robbie Gomez was proving a real handful for the seemingly leaden-footed Parramatta defenders with his superlative speed and trickery.

He ran nicely onto a long pass from Mark Racker in the 18th and hit a firm shot which was desperately blocked and then fell for Dave Harding whose follow up was well saved by Holmes.

Two minutes later the Bonnyrigg side was two goals up.

Gomez got out of a tight corner, literally, boxed in as he was near the left flag after Racker and Harding had combined in lead up work. Gomez then sent in a lovely, looping header for Mancino to head in at the far post with an equally well directed finish.

Gomez took a corner on the right five minutes further into the game and from this Mancino was able to head the ball into the ground and it then bounced nicely over the despairing dive of the once again exposed Holmes.

Mancino had also been involved in the move which led to the corner, his shot being saved well by the keeper.

With this 3-0 lead there was to be no stopping the White Eagles while the other Eagles from Melita Stadium did little thereafter to inspire their loyal supporters who swelled an already strong crowd at the Serbian Centre.

Bonnyrigg went close on two other occasions, a Mancino shot was palmed away and a Paul Dee effort was cleared off the line by Andrew Dowling.

Anthony Mittiga had an individual effort which just cleared the Bonnyrigg bar from 25 yards out in the 30th and Bard also made a punishing run down the left some minutes later, but the defence was able to scramble the ball away when danger threatened.

Parramatta benefitted from a piece of clumsiness in the Bonnyrigg penalty area some 39 seconds after the restart.

Bard raced through to be confronted by three defenders, but one of them stumbled and succeeded only in passing to his opponent who wasted no time in finding the net.

There were a couple of minor chances for Parramatta in the next fifteen minutes, with Saso Boskovski volleying wide from 25 yards, but after that the home side struck again.

Paul Richardson made good ground down the right and cut in before laying the ball off to Gomez on the right. The cross intended for Richardson to run onto eluded him and went on to Mancino who crossed it back from the left. Richardson then was able, not wasting the second opportunity, to volley home from 10 yards for a spectacular finish.

This 65th minute goal signalled the end of Parramatta's chances and the game was to die a little towards the end.

Winning coach John Turner was pleased with his whole team but praised his comeback man Dragas, Racker, also back from injury and Gomez, but felt that the team played well in its entirety.

He says that he is looking forward to Eastern Suburbs this weekend.

Blacktown City 2 Sutherland Sharks 0

For the second home game in a row Blacktown emerged victors by a 2-0 margin, but the win over Sutherland was achieved without Jason Bennett and defender Steve Riches absent again with an injury sustained in the opening win.

The Demons took a while to subdue the energetic Sharks, but a double by Sutherland's nemesis, Stuart Cleary, put paid to any hopes they may have entertained of recording their first win.

Cleary scored his first with a stooping header after Damien Brown had raced past his marker and delivered a low, curling cross to the handily placed Cleary, following an initial run down the right by John Angelucci.

This 28th minute goal was enough to get Blacktown into top gear and it was a sterling effort to the Sutherland players, well served by Jeff Summers and captain Matthew Richardson, to keep them to a single goal lead at the break.

One minute short of the hour mark and the Demons were two up. Another of Brown's corners was despatched to the Sharks goalmouth where Blacktown's strikers were waiting to devour it and the hungry Angelucci was able to control the ball first and then steer it closer where Cleary stuck out his trusty right foot and poked the ball through a sea of Sharks' legs.

Demons' substitutes Chris Bradley and Josh Jackett kept the momentum going after their 75th minute entry and the latter figured in several potential scoring moves, once hitting the side netting with a good shot himself. The 18 year old impressed as did Cleary .

Sutherland had a few moments to remember, with Jeff Podesta going close once and setting up the flashy Keegan Pillay whose own efforts just cleared the bar. Craig Hobbs had one or two chances, the last after an Achilles Markopoulos run and cross in the 73rd, while Mal Bideau forced a one-handed save from Fernando Greco in the 80th after a Pillay cross.

The Sharks competed as they always do, but solid defence was not enough and they need more support for the well watched Hobbs if they are to crack many goal in this campaign.

ROUND FOUR PREVIEW

Blacktown v Central Coast

Blacktown missed both Steve Riches and the speedy Jason Bennett against Sutherland in their Round Three clash, but coach Brian Brown was impressed with 18 year old Josh Jackett in the 25 minutes he was on the pitch. The Demons have two wins out of three and will once again be up near the top of the table.

The Coasties knew they had a hard start to the season being without their home ground for five games. However 4 points from their three away games is a more than reasonable start. Midfielder Peter Preston has scored in his last two games and looks to have quickly recaptured his super form of last year.

Super Soccer tip - The Coasties have picked up points from their last two away games - not tonight though.

Met three times at Gabbie Stadium for two wins to the home side and one to Central Coast.

1997 - Rd 2 Blacktown City 2 (Berry x3, Anderson) bt Central Coast 2 (Moss, Drysdale)

1998 - Rd 19 Blacktown City 2 (Angelucci, Smith) bt Central Coast 0

1999 - Record

Blacktown City Home Record - Played 2 Won 2

Central Coast Away Record - Played 3 Won 1 Drawn 1 Lost 1

Macarthur Rams v Ryde City

Macarthur are the only team with a 100% record after three games, and with their 3-2 win last round against Leicchardt they will be going into this one full of confidence. Boom striker Trevor Whidett scored again last week and may once again be too quick for the Ryde defence.

Ryde got out of jail in their Round Three match with Eastern Suburbs, but know they will have to play much better against a classy Macarthur side.

Coach Les Decelis has last week's hero Scott Ollerenshaw back in contention after his second half performance against Easts, and Ollerenshaw would expect to start. Ryde picked up their first point last week but will have to show more urgency to get anything out of this one.

Super Soccer tip - The Rams to continue their good start to the season.

Met just once last season

1998 - Rd 2 Macarthur Rams 4 (Williams x3, O'Shea) bt Ryde City 2 (Shipley, Stratford pen)

1999 - Record

Macarthur Rams Home Record - Played 2 Won 2

Ryde City Away Record - Played 1 Lost 1

Sutherland Sharks v Leichhardt Tigers

The Sharks have picked up just one point from 3 games, not a start to impress coach John Lavin. History dosen't bode well for the Sharks, as in their last two home meetings they have lost both games to Leichhardt, without scoring a goal.

Leichhardt are another team sitting on four points after three games, giving an indication of how tight this division will be. Although beaten 3-2 at home to Macarthur last round, the Tigers fought strongly and will be keen for a win here.

Super Soccer tip - Both teams to share the points in a close encounter

1997 - Rd 3 Sutherland 0 Leichhardt 2 (Buonavoglia, Telisman)

1998 - Rd 10 Sutherland 0 - Leichhardt 3 (Poimer, Bazdaric, Buonavoglia)

1999 - Record

Sutherland Sharks Home Record - Played 1 Lost 1

Leichhardt Tigers Away Record - Played 1 Won 1

Fairfield Bulls v Canterbury-Marrickville

Fairfield Bulls were outclassed by Bankstown last time out, and will be looking for a win here to keep their solid start up. A first up win over Ryde was a great start but a couple of losses could see the new boys lose confidence to compete at this level.

No such worries for Canterbury though, who have gone quietly about their business this season, without the fanfare of some of the more-fancied teams. 8 goals in 3 games though and unbeaten is a start they would be happy with, and with players such as Jim Nikas they can score goals against any team. It won't be an easy game against newly-promoted Fairfield however, but their extra class and experience should tell in the end.

Super Soccer tip - Canterbury to collect all three points.

No previous meetings

1999 - Record

Fairfield Bulls Home Record - Played 1 Drawn 1

Canterbury-Marrickville Away Record - Played 1 Won 1

Eastern Suburbs v Bonnyrigg White Eagles

Eastern Suburbs should be looking at their watches if this one is close!

Easts have conceded late goals in all three games so far, which could have seen them pick up an extra 3 points. A win last week would have set them up nicely for this difficult tie against Bonnyrigg.

A win and a draw in their first two games is not what coach John Turner would have expected for his Bonnyrigg outfit, however a 4-1 victory over Parramatta suggests a few things may be coming together. Its early days for both teams but a win here for the White Eagles would turn a poor start into an acceptable one, and give them confidence to carry on and put a run together.

Super Soccer tip - A victory for Bonnyrigg in a close game - hopefully not with a last minute winner!

1998 - Rd 9 Eastern Suburbs 1 (Smith) - Bonnyrigg WE 3 (Luff x2 Gomez)

1999 - Record

Eastern Suburbs Home Record - Played 1 Lost 1

Bonnyrigg White Eagles Away Record - Played 1 Drawn 1

Parramatta Eagles v Bankstown City

Parramatta have been quiet so far this season, although their two late goals against Ryde gave them their only win. They had the misfortune of meeting a fire-up Bonnyrigg last outing, so they will be hoping Bankstown have one of their off days in this one.

Will the real Bankstown please stand up? A 5-2 away win at Bonnyrigg followed by a 5-1 thrashing by Canterbury-Marrickville means their supporters don't know what to expect. The deservedly beat Fairfield 3-1 last round, so will they come out and play against the eagles, or will they just lie down and die? Your guess is as good as mine.

Super Soccer tip - Who knows! Bankstown to win if they perform like they can, if not Parramatta! Most probably end up in a draw.

Met three times at Melita Stadium for 2 Bankstown wins and a draw

1997 - Rd8 0-0

1998 - Rd6 Bankstown City 1 (Todoroski 88') bt Parramatta Eagles 0

John CALLEJA

first grade coach of Super League side Eastern Suburbs

There's something not quite right about John Calleja being the first grade coach of Super League side Eastern Suburbs.

Its nothing to do with his coaching ability or his commitment to the game, its just that, well, to be honest, he doesn't look old enough!

Calleja himself takes up the story. "Yeah, I guess there are times when I am with the boys that I can look about 18! In a trial match I was shouting from the sidelines and an opposition player asked our striker Stevie Lawrence, 'who's that young kid on the bench!'

Calleja is 32 in May, a time where many players his age are running around the park every week. A useful player in his day, surely he must miss playing?

"No, not really. I have gone past the stage of playing and don't really miss it that much. I am heavily into the coaching and it came down to a decision that when I was playing and coaching I would be away from my family for four days a week plus all weekend."

Family is obviously important to Calleja, being happily married for five years with a baby girl and another on the way.

Calleja started coaching at the age of 21, with local children in the Eastern Suburbs area for 4 years. He was playing at the time but got really interested in coaching when he was advised to do a Level 2 Coaching Course.

His coaching resume looks to have seen him move around a bit - but they are all different variations on the Eastern Suburbs team.

"After getting my level 2 coaching course I got a job coaching at Southern Eastern (now Eastern Suburbs) then coached Sydney Cosmos U18's. I had a year of youth grade there, then a year with the Eastern Suburbs U18's last year and then onto the first grade this year," he said.

Calleja took over the coaching reins from ex-Socceroo Joe Watson, who now coaches at Fairfield Bulls. To be fair to Calleja, him and Watson couldn't be much further apart in way of profiles. Did he realise what a big job it would be for an unknown coach from the U18's to take over from an ex-international?

"Yeah, it was a big job taking over from Joe with his background. He always seemed to get the best out of his players...however I believe in my own coaching ability and although it is a big jump I believe I am prepared for it," said Calleja.

Calleja was an Eastern Suburbs junior as a player, and played a few games in the State League at the age of 18. He played for the University of New South Wales for a couple of years in Division One, had two years with Rosebery in the same division and also played for the Spanish Club in Division Two. He finished off playing at Pagewood in their last season in the league.

Like every coach he is looking for his team to finish as high as possible this year, however he also feels that it is just as important to create an environment where local-based junior players can come straight into senior teams.

Eastern Suburbs have a good mix of young players and experienced ones, and Calleja knows the importance of both groups.

"People like Stevie Lawrence and Tony Canning are experienced and will talk to the younger players. They have the experience to carry them through.

"Rudi Jerkovic is looking good in training and Mark Beldham has scored goals at this level before. We need to make sure we are scoring and Beldham has played for Warringah, so we need him to fire for us."

Eastern Suburbs looked to have had a setback in the first game when goalkeeper Adam Mark suffered an arm injury and had to be replaced. In stepped Con Anastasiadis, and promptly produced a couple of displays that means the loss of Mark is not as bad as first feared.

"I feel really sorry for Adam Mark," said Calleja, "He's had a big set-back as he could be out for 6 weeks with his injury. Last year we had four goalkeepers and Mark was patient and waited for his chance. He was playing really well in the trials and then this injury comes alone. However, Con is a local junior and to be fair has come in and really grabbed the opportunity with both hands."

While Eastern Suburbs don't have the class or depth of some of the ore-fancied teams, Calleja has them working hard for each other, and they won't be anyone's easy-beats. Whether their coach will look so young at the end of the season remains to be seen!

Some players are soon forgotten when their careers are over, drifting down through the lower divisions in order to keep playing or leaving the game altogether, while others turn to coaching or committee work.

Scots-born former St George, Rockdale and most recently Sutherland striker, Stewart Porter, falls into both the latter two categories.

He always played to a high standard and gave Sutherland one or two precious seasons a couple of years back, but had no desire to play until he dropped.

Instead, at the start of this season, he approached the Sutherland club and asked if he might be considered for a coaching position with one of their many junior teams.

Not needing to be asked twice, the club offered him the Under 18s job this season and Porter was only too pleased to oblige.

That is not the end of the matter as it is clear from watching games at the Sharks' Seymour Shaw ground that Porter is more than just an aspiring coach.

He is involved with the club in a tangible way, spotted most recently persuading the members of a crowd of more than a thousand, who passed through the impressive Boulevard gates for last week's friendly against Northern Spirit, to buy raffle tickets to help raise much needed funds.

Porter and his good mate Paul McFadden who travelled out from Scotland at the same time and played together for a while, have both begun their coaching courses at the same time and they would like to make a success of it, an ambition which, it seems, they are well on the way to achieving.

McFadden's career was cut short by arthritis and Porter had business interests to consider, otherwise they might have prolonged their playing days in their new home country much longer than they have.

Another of Porter's old partners in his playing days, Bruno Beddoni, who helped form a lethal striking combination, especially playing for Rockdale at Hurstville Oval, has decided to call it a day, at least from AC United where he appeared last term. Another spell at a lower division club may still tempt him, but AC seem certain that he has played his last game for them in the NSW First Division.

Tony Henderson is coaching at Abruzzi Oval this year and the club is busy with trial games, a double header this weekend involving the team in a game on Saturday 27th at Cromer Park against Manly and on Sunday against Greystanes at Knight Park. They were due to play Mount Pritchard last weekend, having already played Sydney University a week earlier.

The Wetherill Park club has retained useful defender Vladan Radic as well as Atillio Labbozzetta, with a number of players having moved on at the end of last season. There has been no sign so far of top marksman Zia Younan, while Chad Gibson and Buddy Farah are involved at Marconi in first grade Ericsson Cup this summer.

Ten players have signed and another five are expected to agree to terms shortly.

The club's star player, Osvaldo El Ali, will be coaching the Under 13s, which seems to be his main interest at the moment, but could be persuaded to play again this season.

There has been a sense of anticipation down on the South Coast where Illawarra Lions are preparing for the season which they hope will launch them on the path to a Super League position once more.

Their new ground on 40 acres at Berkeley is going to be ready for the Manly game on 11th April and could even be finished in time for the round 3 game on March 28. The slab has been poured for the amenities block, the main pitch is coming along nicely and the 3,800 seat covered grandstand should be ready by August at the latest. There will be powerful floodlights and a function centre under the stand when completed.

The ground is on private land owned by the Macedonian community and has long been almost a pipe dream, but is finally being realised.

Coach Ljube Jancev has signed Marshall Soper to a three year contract as he sees the former Socceroo as someone who can teach the juniors at the club a great deal by his example. Jim Melissourgos has been brought in from Hurstville City, following an unhappy spell at Eastern Suburbs and John Tratselas has moved on from Fairfield. Hopes of signing Ante Zizic foundered as the tall defender could not manage the time away from his job to train in the area, but the Lions are talking to Bankstown about some players to further strengthen the squad which just missed the semis last year.

All of last season's players remain, with the exception of Luke Larfield who found the travelling from his Canberra base too arduous.

The club met Auburn at JJ Kelly Park Coniston last weekend and plays Rockdale at the same ground at 5 pm this Sunday, 28th. Final preparation is a showdown with Melbourne club side Sloga, from the Victorian 2nd Division, on Saturday 6th March Moorebank are expecting a very young side, under the capable Alfredo Barrios, to carry their hopes this season. The loss of Anthony and Martin

Driene and Antony Versi as well as keeper Graeme White to other clubs, the retirement of defender and captain Stuart Key, Danny Volarich from the midfield and stopper Luke Cleverley will be keenly felt.

The talented Will Croker and Scott Watkins are still in the fold and Lee Heselhurst has been brought in from Stanmore to fill the goalkeeping void.

Mount Pritchard welcome back midfield maestro Franco Cosentino and have the added bonus of his cousin the diminutive John Cosentino to add to their ranks. Greg Baldock is going to be among the goals again for sure with the club playing at the more modest 2nd Division level now. Frank Serratore, utility Glen Hulm and keeper Matthew Darwen are back on deck so the club should do well. They are also looking at another tough as nails defender who played with them a few seasons ago.

There will be more, much more, on the clubs in Divisions One and Two in next week's Super Soccer.

Bankstown City Lions 1 v 5 Canterbury-Marrickville

Canterbury-Marrickville made it 4 points out of a possible 6 when they demolished the Bankstown City Lions away from home. It looked good for the Lions fans when Mile Todoroski put them ahead after 20 minutes, and when it stayed that way a win looked on the cards for supporters still celebrating their previous week's win over Bonnyrigg.

Someone obviously forgot to tell that to Canterbury-Marrickville in the second half however, as they promptly smashed five past the hapless Lions. A brace each for Nick Bosevski and the prolific Jim Nikas, along with one from Yani Talchevski helped the Berries on their way to a comfortable win.

Bankstown: Premutico, Josevski, R Luksic, Van Bentum, Abi-Arrage, Trposki, Todoroski (Grozanovski) , Adioski, Issa, Codmani (Gibson)
